

DOWN THE LANE FROM THE ORDINARY

OUR PRIVACY POLICY

Following the implementation of the recent General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) we just wish our guests to be aware of the following, don't worry you wont have to read through pages of complicated jargon as to how we use your personal information.

THE PERSONAL INFORMATION WE COLLECT

When dealing with the hotel directly we only collect enough data from your either by phone, email or in person to complete a booking. This information is then held securely by us and only used for administration purposes for your stay with us. It is NEVER passed on in any form to any outside agency or third party. Data that is held by the companies used in our various external booking systems is subject to their own strict GCPD policies.

OUR WEBSITE AND COOKIES

Quite simply our uncomplicated website only uses one cookie. Its not used for any advertising and only to provide Google analytical data. The website does not use any internal form system and instead uses a direct email system when the icon is clicked which uses your own email account to send data meaning you are in control of what you send to us all the time.

LINKS TO OTHER WEBSITES

We are careful when putting links on our website which are only of interest to people staying with us but please exercise your own caution when leaving our website and visiting these websites.

So that's it really, nice and simple and leaving you to relax and enjoy your stay with us.

Looking forward to seeing you!
